The Maritime & Seafood Industry Museum in Biloxi last week inducted a late Bay St. Louis fisherman and boat builder into its Heritage Hall of Fame. Operation Wake Up and Men & Women of God Ministries, along with Hijra House, and his own children nominated Leo Paul "Bubsie" Maurice, Sr., for the hall of fame earlier this year.

Maurice was inducted Saturday into the Hall of Fame in the Boat Owners, Captains and Commercial Fisherman category; and in the Industry Tradesman category.

Maurice was born Feb. 8 1925 and died April 11, 1992. He served in the U.S. Navy during World War II. He and his wife Victoria Cospelich Maurice had nine children, Edna, Leo Jr., Yvette, Christine, Gary, Missy, Morris, Glenn and Paula.

"He was a good person," Leo Paul Maurice, Jr., said. "We were really honored (the Maritime Museum) decided to recognize him."

"We submitted his history in the seafood business by way of letters and photographs to the society. We were kind of late in the process, but they called a week later and said they had voted him in, so we went over Saturday for the induction ceremony. We found out at that time that they had voted him in for two different categories -- one was for fishing and one was for boat-building."

"Bubsie" Maurice developed a strong reputation for the boats he built, his son said.

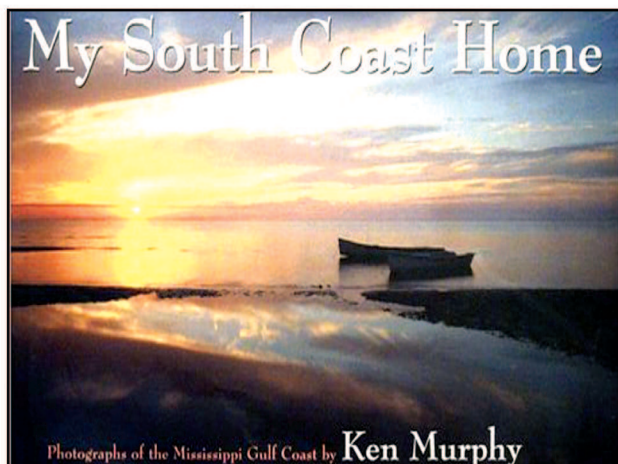

In his letter to the hall of fame nomination committee, the junior Maurice said "Two of his skiffs are on the front cover of (Bay St. Louis photographer Ken Murphy's book) 'My South Coast Home.' ... Not only was my father known for his fishing skills, he was a master craftsman in carpentry and plastering. He helped build many of his friends' homes, including ours. He also built the only black-owned service station in Hancock County."

"My father's family were fishermen before him," Paul, Jr., said. "He was a plasterer for a time, but he got paralyzed on his

Waveland P.D.: Woman's boyfriend held her hostage, beat and choked her

BY STACEY CATO
CONTRIBUTING WRITER

A woman was held hostage for more than five hours Tuesday at a local apartment complex in what police call a "disturbing act of domestic violence."

According to Waveland Assistant Police Chief Michael Prendergast, 21-year-old Dajon Lorenzo Ramsey on Tuesday woke up accusing his girlfriend of "cheating."

The situation quickly spiraled out of control, Prendergast said, leading to a real life nightmare for the woman.

The woman was forced to remain unclothed, Prendergast said, as Ramsey allegedly continually beat and choked her.

During the assault, police said, Ramsey not only used his hands, but also a board to strike her.

Ramsey would not allow the woman to put clothes on in fear she would leave the home for help, officers said. When she attempted to escape, Ramsey allegedly grabbed her and forced her back inside, they said. He had taken her cellphone phone, in a further attempt to keep her from reaching out for help.

BWSD Superintendent talks district's future

Bay-Waveland School District Superintendent Dr. Sandra Reed on Thursday hosted Coffee with the Superintendent, where she discussed the district's academic plans.

The purpose of the event, Reed said, was to gather input from parents and members of the community about the district.

"We can only make changes and improvements when we know where the need is," Reed said.

Academically, Reed said, the district dropped to a level "C" this year.

"We're the only 'C' school district on the coast," she added. "The political tone in the Bay-Waveland School District over the last years has been a little bit bumpy. It wouldn't be reasonable for any of us to think that that doesn't take a toll on the school district."

Reed said the current board is providing "really good solid support and leadership in all the right ways."

Elections set for this Tuesday

BY GEOFF BELCHER
NEWS EDITOR

Hancock County voters will be headed back to the polls again next Tuesday, Nov. 6, to decide who will represent them in the U.S. Senate, U.S. House of Representatives and -- on the local level -- for circuit and chancery court judges and the Hancock County School Board.

There are two U.S. Senate races on the ballot next week. One is for the seat currently held by Sen. Roger Wicker.

Wicker is being challenged by state Rep. David Baria, a Democrat and Bay St. Louis resident; Libertarian candidate Danny Bedwell; and Reform candidate Shawn O'Hara.

The other U.S. Senate race is a special election for the seat formerly held by Sen. Thad Cochran, who stepped down earlier this year due to health reasons. Gov. Phil Bryant appointed then-Mississippi Commissioner of Agriculture and Commerce Cindy Hyde-Smith. That election is a nonpartisan "blanket" or "jungle" primary, meaning all candidates for the office -- regardless of respective political party -- run against each other at once.

If neither candidate gains 50 percent of the vote, there will be a runoff special election between the top two candidates three weeks later on Nov. 27.

Hyde-Smith, a Republican, is seeking election to serve the balance of Cochran's term, which expires in January 2021. She is being challenged by state Sen. Chris McDaniel, a Republican; former Rep. Mike Espy, a Democrat; and Tobey Bernard Barte, also a Democrat.

Also on Tuesday, voters will choose the next member of the U.S. House of Representatives for Mississippi's 4th Congressional District.

Incumbent Rep. Steven Palazzo, a Republican, is being challenged by Democrat Jeremy Anderson and Reform Party candidate Lajena Sheets.

There are also several nonpartisan judicial races on the Nov. 6 ballot.

In the race for Chancery Judge, Place Three -- representing Hancock, Harrison and Stone counties, the candidates include Judge Margaret Alfonso; incumbent Judge Sanford "Sandy" Steckler; and attorney Dianne Herman Ellis.

All other judicial races on the ballot are for incumbents who are unopposed, including:

- David M. Ishee, for Supreme Court District 2 (Southern district), Position one.

- Anthony N. Lawrence, III, Court of Appeals District 5, Position 1.

- Sean Tindell for Court of Appeals District 5, Position 2

- Jim Persons for Chancery Court District 8, Place 1.

- Jennifer Schloegel, Chancery Court District 8, Place 2.

- Carter Bise for Chancery Court District 8, Place 4.

- Lisa P. Dodson for Circuit Court District 2, Place 1.

- Chris Schmidt for Circuit Court District 2, Place 2.

- Larry Bourgeois for Circuit Court District 2, Place 3.

- Roger Clark for Circuit Court District 2, Place 4.

- S. Trent Favre for Hancock County Court Judge.

There are also two Hancock County School Board races on the ballot, with neither incumbent opposed, including William "Billy" Thomas in District 3; and Jennifer Seal in District 4.

Polls will be open from 7 a.m.-7 p.m. on Tuesday.

Absentee voting will continue at the Hancock County Circuit Clerk's office at the county courthouse in downtown Bay St. Louis from 8-5 today, Thursday and Friday; and until noon on Saturday, the last day to vote absentee.

Let turning clocks back be a reminder to protect your home & family

The end of daylight saving time on Sunday is fast approaching. State Fire Marshal Mike Chaney says, when you turn your clocks back this weekend, take an extra minute or two to change the battery in your smoke alarm or test to make sure it's still working.

Of the 66 fire deaths investigated by the State Fire Marshal's Office so far in 2018, more than 60% of them either had no smoke alarm or a non-working smoke alarm present.

Working smoke alarms save lives and Commissioner Chaney says not having a working alarm is simply unacceptable.

"If you do not have a smoke alarm in your home, get one! If you have one, make sure it is in working order. A working smoke alarm cuts your risk of dying in a fire in half," said Chaney.

The Mississippi State Fire Marshal's Office recommends the following smoke alarm safety tips:

- Test smoke alarms at least once a month using the test button.
- Make sure everyone in the home understands the sound of the smoke alarm and knows how to respond.
- Replace all smoke alarms when they are 10 years old.
- Replace the smoke alarm immediately if it doesn't respond properly when tested.
- Smoke alarms with non-replaceable (long-life) batteries are designed to remain effective for up to 10 years. If the alarm chirps, a warning that the battery is low, replace the entire smoke alarm right away.
- For smoke alarms with any other type of battery, replace batteries at least once a year. If the alarm chirps, replace only the battery.

Americans move to low tax states

Few people would argue with the beauty of a California sunset. The bright lights of Times Square are tough to compete with. But there is one thing that can top the allure of California or Manhattan: your pocketbook.

While many on the left may argue that a certain class of Americans enjoy the high-tax, high-regulation burdens of our most liberal cities and states, and the perceived protections that go with it, the numbers paint a different picture.

Americans are moving to lower tax states where they are able to keep more of the money they earn. This isn't a talking point, but a statistical reality based on migration data. Unfortunately, Mississippi is on the wrong side of both taxes and, as a result, in-migration.

Sales, property, and individual income taxes, as a percentage of personal income in Mississippi, are 9.9 percent, according to CATO Institute. That's pretty high. In fact, only 14 states, including traditional high tax states like California, Connecticut, New Jersey, and New York, fared worse. All neighboring states had lower tax burdens than Mississippi. What effect does this have?

Mississippi had a net migration loss of over 3,500 in 2016. On a per capita basis, this means Mississippi lost 100 residents for every 88 the state gained.

This is parallel with migration loses in Louisiana. Alabama and Arkansas were essentially flat in terms of migration while Tennessee added over 13,000 residents. For every 100 residents that Tennessee lost, they added 119. Tennessee, a state without an individual income tax, is home to one of the lowest tax rates in the country with a tax burden of 6.5 percent. And they are reaping the benefits of smart fiscal policy.

The Wall Street Journal reported in May: "Alliance-Bernstein Holding LP plans to relocate its headquarters, chief executive and most of its New York staff to Nashville, Tenn., in an attempt to cut costs...In a memo to employees, Alliance-Bernstein cited lower state, city and property taxes compared with the New York metropolitan area among the reasons for the relocation. Nashville's affordable cost of living, shorter commutes and ability to draw talent were other factors."

Twenty-six states had a tax burden of 8.5 percent or greater. Of those 26, 25 had a net out-migration. Only Maine was able to buck the trend. And not surprisingly, of the 17 states that had net migration gains in 2016, all but one has a tax burden of less than 8.5 percent. All totaled, more than 500,000 individuals moved from the top 25 highest-tax states to the 25 lowest-tax states in 2016. Those high tax states lost an aggregate income of $33 billion.

Along with the relatively high individual tax burden, our business tax climate sits at 31st best, according to the Tax Foundation. Not terrible, and actually better than Alabama, Arkansas, and Louisiana, but not great either. The same report had Tennessee at 16.

So what can we do in Mississippi? We can follow the lead of high-growth, low-tax states in the Southeast that have lower taxes, lighter licensure and regulatory burdens, and a smaller government.

This past session, the legislature debated a bill known as the "Brain Drain"

Tax Credit. It would have provided a three-year income-tax exemption to recent college graduates who are Mississippi residents. And there was an additional two-year exemption for those who start a business. It passed the House unanimously but died in the Senate without a vote.

States are in competition with one another. We know this because we routinely offer incentives for select companies in the form of subsidies or tax breaks, or we propose eliminating the individual income tax for three to five years for recent college graduates.

While we are always in favor of lower taxes, these moves are just an acknowledgement that our tax burden hurts individual opportunity and the state's economic growth. We have succeeded in phasing out the lowest income tax bracket. Instead of eliminating the income tax for just a few, we should work on eliminating the income tax for all taxpayers. And instead of offering incentives to just a few, our goal should be to create the most business-friendly climate in the country – for all types, sizes, and industries.

A public policy based on freedom is the recipe high-growth states have adopted. It's how we'll grow our economy in Mississippi, too.

Wildlife Mississippi Applauds Skipwith's Nomination

Wildlife Mississippi has applauded President Donald Trump's intent to nominate Aurelia Skipwith as the new U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service director.

We have strong and productive partnerships with the Fish and Wildlife Service in Mississippi. We look forward to working with Ms. Skipwith to further these relationships and this important work for the state's rich natural resources and the people who value and enjoy them.

Wildlife Mississippi works on a number of habitat conservation and conservation education efforts with the Service and other federal and state agencies.

They include working to protect and restore the Lower Mississippi River, Butahatchie River, Bayou Pierre and Pearl River systems; restoring wetlands, coastal, prairie, longleaf, and other habitats with private landowners; and developing the Theodore Roosevelt Visitor Center in the Mississippi Delta.

I have had the privilege of working with Ms. Skipwith in her current capacity at the Department of the Interior.

The nation is fortunate to be the beneficiary of her service. Furthermore, she has Mississippi roots as her parents are from Columbus.

I recently spent a large part of a day with her, Secretary of the Interior Ryan Zinke, Senator Roger Wicker, Governor Phil Bryant, and many of Medgar Evers' family announcing the induction of the Medgar and Myrlie Evers home into the American Civil Rights Network.

She provided the leadership that ensured the home was added to this very important network.

Hawks end 2018 season as winners with 24-21 victory over Pascagoula

BY DWAYNE BREMER
CONTRIBUTING WRITER

Blake Comeaux's touchdown run with two minutes to play Friday capped an 11-point, second-half comeback, as the Hancock Hawks went out winners in 2018 with a 24-21 victory over the Pascagoula Panthers at Brett Favre Field.

Friday's victory was all about the Hawk seniors, who played their final game together.

Prior to the game, the Hawks rallied around injured seniors Brooks Rayburn, Nicholas Melgar, and Jacob Ortman in the pre-game huddle.

"This was the end of a four-year journey," Rayburn said. "We completed that journey tonight. We stuck together, no matter what, and this game will be one we will remember forever."

Hawks Head Coach Neil Lollar said the victory will be a life-long lesson for the players.

"We went through a lot this year, but we showed a lot of grit and determination," Lollar said. "I'm so happy for these seniors and the rest of the team. They never quit and we were able to finish the season with success."

Pascagoula opened the scoring late in the first quarter when it took advantage of an interception in Hawks territory.

The Panthers moved 35 yards in eight plays on the drive, which was capped by a ten-yard touchdown toss from Slade Mink to Travis Watson.

The point-after gave the Panthers a 7-0 lead.

Pascagoula recovered an on-sides kick on the next play, but was forced to punt.

On the punt play, Hawks lineman Devin Laneaux poured into the backfield and blocked the punt.

The ball went backwards 30 yards before it was recovered at the Panther 15.

Two plays later,

Hancock's Jordan Fouchee scooted around the left end for a nine-yard touchdown.

Austin Hyde added the point-after to tie the score at 7-7 with 11:50 to play in the second quarter.

Later in the second quarter, Hyde booted a 36-yard field-goal to give the Hawks a 10-7 lead.

Pascagoula answered with a nine-play, 65-yard drive to score with just seven seconds to play in the first half.

Montello Kirkland did the scoring honors with a two-yard run.

The point-after gave Panthers a 14-10 lead at the break.

Early in the third quarter, the Panthers recovered a Hawk fumble at the 26, and a penalty gave them a first down at the Hawk 15.

Three plays later, Kirkland scored his second touchdown of the game, this time from nine yards out.

The point-after gave the Panthers a 21-10 lead with 7:19 to play in the third.

Hancock quickly answered when Chris Benard capped an eight-play, 67-yard drive with a three-yard scoring run.

Hyde's extra-point cut the lead to 21-17 with just over two minutes to play in the third quarter.

The two teams traded fumbles on their next drives, and with just under four minutes to play, the Panthers took over at their own 28 with a chance to run out the clock.

The Panthers quickly picked up a first down; however, Kirkland fumbled on their next play, and the ball was scooped up by Hancock's Carson Island at the 41 with 2:38 to play.

"We knew we had one more shot and we wanted it to count," Hawk quarterback Caleb Garcia said. "I told everyone to just stay calm and make a play."

Garcia opened the game-winning drive with an 11-yard pass to Fouchee for a first down to the 30. Fouchee then took a hand-off around the left side, picked up a great block from Quentin Fowler, and raced down the sidelines for 28 yards to the two.

Comeaux scored on the next play to give the Hawks the lead.

Hyde added the point-after and the Hawks were back on top with just 2:11 to play.

Pascagoula took over at the 32 after the kickoff, but they could not pick up a first down, and Hancock ran out the clock.

Fouchee led all Hawk runners with 66 yards on seven carries. Benard added 54 yards.

The Hawks finished the 2018 season with a record of 4-7 and 2-5 in Region 4-6A.

Lollar said that the way the season ended will pay dividends headed into the off-season.

"We had a lot of young guys grow up this year," Lollar said. "These last two games will serve as a stepping stone to where we want to get to next year."

SSC Rock-a-Chaws close season with 28-12 loss

BY JOSEPH W. GEX, II
STAFF WRITER

The temperatures finally dropped to what is great football weather. The St. Stanislaus Rock-a-chaws hosted the first round of the Class 4A state playoffs 'between the walls' at the Brother Phillip Memorial Athletic Complex against the Northeast Lauderdale Trojans.

The Trojans (7-4) came in as the #3-seed from Division 5-4A while the Rocks (5-6) were the #2-seed from Division 8-4A. The Trojans recorded the upset over SSC 28-12 behind a grind-it-out running game and four turnovers by the Rocks. The loss marked the first time the Rocks have lost in the first round of the playoffs since 2011.

The Trojans opened the game on defense and the Rocks forced a three and out. The Rocks took over on their own 47 yard line and Max Favre hooked up with Lee Negrotto for a 45-yard gain. Favre then found Brandon Bordelon for a six-yard pick-up. Bordelon took the ball in for the score from two yards out on the third play with 8:53 left in the first quarter. William Weber missed on the PAT to leave the score 6-0.

The Trojans did not waste any time to answer as Kam Hulin found Jaquarrious Barron for a 73-yard scoring aerial over the top with 8:32 left in the opening quarter. Mason Daniels converted on the PAT to make the score 7-6.

The Rocks were not able to move the ball on their second drive and were forced to punt. The Trojans then out on an impressive display of clock management with a 21-play drive that lasted 11 minutes and culminated with a four-yard scoring run by Michael McClinton with 6:52 left in the first half. The PAT by Daniels was good making the score 14-6.

The two teams traded interceptions on the next two possessions. The Rocks were picked off by Tyler Smith to end a drive while Thomas Williams ended the Trojan drive. The Rocks took over at their own 20 yard line.

SSC used a 10-play drive to eat up the rest of the half and go into the locker room down 14-6.

SSC came out in the second half throwing the football and moved the sticks once but ended up having to punt away.

The Rock defense stepped up and force a punt but SSC was intercepted on their first play of the following drive.

SSC pushed the Trojans backwards and forced a punt which they took over at the Trojan 42 yard line after Trace Rhodes' 23-yard punt return.

Favre went back to the air hitting Negrotto for eight yards and then 21 more. Bordelon ripped off a 13-yard gain and culminated the drive with a five-yard plunge with 4:32 left in the third quarter. The two-point conversion failed leaving the score 14-12.

The Rocks held firm on the next Trojan possession but were intercepted at their own 24-yard line.

It took the Trojans just two plays to find the endzone. Hulin hit Chris Hardy for a 15-yard scoring toss with 17 seconds left in the third quarter. The PAT was good making the score 21-12.

SSC moved the ball into Trojan territory on the ensuing possession but fumbled the ball away near midfield.

The Trojans went 12 plays but could not find the endzone and SSC took over at their own six yard line.

The Rocks fumbled at their own eight yard line and the Trojans fell on the loose ball. Two plays later McClinton scored from eight yards out with 3:01 left to play. The PAT was good making the final score 28-12.

The Rocks moved the ball down the field with Favre hitting Dallas Payne for 17 yards and Bradley Darby for five more. He found Bordelon for a gain of 10 and Payne for five. Favre connected with Thomas Williams for seven and Negrotto for 12 yards down the Trojan nine yard line. However, the Rocks would not get in the endzone and the Trojans ran the clock out.

SSC head coach Nate Encrapera commented, "We had a really tough time finishing plays and drives tonight. We did not tackle well early. Northeast Lauderdale did some things that we did not see on film. They have a big and physical front and they used it. But, we made mistakes tonight that cost games. We are still a young team and we continued to make young mistakes. I am very proud of our seniors this year. They carried a young team and showed these youngsters what it takes to make a difference. Now, we move to the off season. We need to evaluate personnel and tailor workouts to make each individual the best player they can be. We have to get in the weight room and get stronger and become more physical."

The Rocks were led in the game by Bordelon who carried the ball 14 times for 48 yards and two scores. Favre threw for 241 yards on 25-for-41 passing. Negrotto had four receptions for 86 yards while Payne had seven catches for 81 yards. Thomas Williams added four passes for 46 yards.

The Rocks advanced to the state playoffs for the sixth consecutive year and the 15th time in the last 17 seasons. The Trojans will now host Poplarville in the second round of the Class 4A state playoffs on Friday, November 9th.

With the end of football in the area, fans will have to wait six months for spring training to begin at the beginning of May. See you at the game!

SSC looks to make leap forward on the hardwood

BY JOSEPH W. GEX, II
STAFF WRITER

The St. Stanislaus Rock-a-chaws are looking to make a leap in 2018-19 on the hardwood after going 13-15 last season.

The Rocks return four starters and several others who saw action last year to position themselves for the move forward.

SSC head coach Aaron Dunklin, who is also a 2000 graduate of the school, commented, "We have some consistency returning with Luke Ladner, Brandon Bordelon, Alexander Fuller and Dallas Payne.

"It is their third year in the program and we are expecting them to be the leaders of the leap forward in the progression of the program. We will also be looking at younger players rising up through the program to help fill roles and create depth throughout the season."

The Rocks lost just one senior from last season in Jeremiah Reynoso who averaged 10 points and four rebounds per game and was the team's primary ball handler.

Ladner has been the leader early in camp as Bordelon, Fuller and Payne are all playing football for SSC. Ladner averaged 11 points and three boards per game for SSC and is being counted on to step up his game and usher the Rocks forward.

Ladner is expected to play both guard and forward this year in a hybrid type role.

Fuller averaged five points and two boards per game last year; however, his real talent was on the defensive end of the court as he drew the auspicious assignment of guarding the primary shooter for the opponent.

Bordelon returns at a forward position for the Rocks after he averaged 12 points and five rebounds last season.

Payne, a 6'3" junior, averaged five points, five rebounds and three steals per game a year ago. He is expected to remain down low for SSC this year.

The Rocks have several other players that saw the court last year whose playing time is expected to increase such as Landry Lemoine, Charlie Whaley, Leo Seal IV, and Destin Whavers among others.

The Rocks were put out in the first round of the Division 8-4A tournament last year by East Central Dunklin added, "If everyone can play their role and get a point or two and a rebound or two, I think it will be extremely beneficial to our maturation process. We are looking forward to getting everything started and see where we need to focus and practice more."

The Rocks open their season today against the Hancock Hawks in the Gulfprrt Classic at 10:30am. Next, the Rocks will open their home schedule on November 9th at home against Forrest County AHS which is coached by 2001 SSC graduate Grayson Timidaiski. See you at the game!

WALK: VOLLEYBALL PLAYER OF THE WEEK

Rebecca Walk helped her Our Lady Academy Crescent team win the Class I state championship in a 3-0 sweep of Resurrection High School 25-19, 25-15, and 25-16 on Saturday at The Gillom Sports Center on the campus of The University of Mississippi in Oxford. In the game, Walk tallied 20 kills, eight blocks, 14 serve receptions and four digs. Walk is a University of South Alabama commit. The win by OLA gave them their seventh consecutive state volleyball title and 13th overall.

OLA continues to develop hardwood foundation

BY JOSEPH W. GEX, II
STAFF WRITER

The Our Lady Academy Crescents won just two games last season but that has not stopped head coach Sandy Albright in her quest to lay the foundation of a solid program on the high school hardwood.

She returns five seniors this year along with a bevy of freshmen and sophomores that will compete for time on the court.

Albright commented, "We are further ahead this year than we were last year when I took over. We have been a little smarter scheduling teams that are more our size.

"We worked extremely hard last year and were in several games toward the latter part of last season. We bring back five seniors in Isabella and Victoria Wolf, Madison Bradley, Katie Albright and Hunter Grimes. We are looking forward to seeing them lead this team and bring along our freshmen and sophomores."

The Wolf twins have played since their seventh grade year while Bradley returns to the team this year after taking last year off. Bradley just got finished with the state swimming championships. Albright is also a two-sport athlete having been a member of the golf state championship team last spring. Grimes is a do-it-all player that hustles everywhere.

Albright has a total of 28 players in junior high and senior high. Several of the younger players will challenge for time on the court, as well. Some of the younger players who gaining attention are Callie Reimhart, Abby Whaley, Hailey Cox, Ashton Alderman, Fra Schyler, Julia Haslette, and Eileen Masterson.

Albroght added, "This group of girls are so much fun to coach. They are willing to learn and will do anything I ask of them. We are still an inexperienced team but our immediate goal is to increase our win total. We have about 16 eighth graders playing so we are going to keep that group together."

This will be OLA's last year in 2A as they are moving up to 3A next year which Albright says may be a benefit for the team.

The Crescents open their season on November 6th in the Poplarville Tournament. They will open their home schedule on Friday, November 9th against Forrest County AHS. See you at the game!

Hawks hoping to soar under new hoops mentor

BY JOSEPH W. GEX, II
STAFF WRITER

The Hancock Hawks went outside to find a new mentor for the Hawks basketball team in the offseason but they did not have to go to far to find their fit.

This past spring Hancock hired former SSC letterman and Gulfport Admiral assistant coach Derrick Willis to take the Hawks to new heights.

Since that spring day, Willis hit the ground running and has not stopped.

Willis commented, "I thoroughly appreciate this opportunity that the Hancock County School District has presented me. It is phenomenal. I have not really had an opportunity to take it all in yet. We face the same challenges that we have always faced here at Hancock when competing within this rigorous division and that is athleticism and confidence. From what I have observed so far, the players are very competitive and work extremely hard. They are a dedicated group."

The Hawks have some experience returning from a squad that went 4-23 a year ago. Brandon Miller is a do-it-all type of player who can fill several times while Elijah Law is a quick trigger player. Two other players that saw time last year are currently competing in football and they are Payton Miller and Quinton Fowler. Willis describes them as physical players who compete for every ball.

Willis added, "Eventually, I think we will be able to play 11 guys. It is imperative that we are able to multiple guys to keep fresh legs on the court and give some different looks. That will help us wear teams down. The guys we play will play tenacious defense because we have to shoot for keeping teams at 50 points or less."

Willis stated that the summer session was very successful. The squad attended a team camp at Co-Lin Junior College where they were able to play athletic teams like Brookhaven and Lawrence County. He said that the confidence began to show at that point.

Willis ended, "Building this foundation and program is a process. The players have to buy in 100% for it to be successful. Our goal is to attain one of the three playoff spots from our division. This team is paying their dues. They are fighters and I am liking their chances more and more each day."

The Hawks open the season today against St. Stanislaus at the Gulfport Classic at 10:30am. See you at the game!

OLA takes first runner-up spot at MHSAA swimming championship

SEA COAST ECHO

Our Lady Academy (OLA) merited the First Runner-Up spot in the MHSAA Swimming Championship in Tupelo, Mississippi this past weekend. The Crescents placed in seven events, collecting 5 Silver and 9 Bronze medals.

OLA claimed the Silver

Medal in the 200 Medley Relay with the team of Madison Bradley, Rylie Moore, Alyssa Talbot, and Ella Taylor. Rylie Moore secured the Silver Medal in the 200 Free and the Bronze in the 100 Free. Madison Bradley, Alyssa Talbot and Ella Taylor took home the Bronze in the 50 Free, 100 Fly, and 100 Free, respectively. In the 200 Free

Relay the team of Rylie Moore, Madison Bradley, Audrey Chang and Claire Escher seized the Bronze.

"From the first week of practice, the girls supported each other as they worked hard towards their goals. Each and every swimmer contributed in some way to the final outcome of the season, and they have much to be proud of," said OLA

Swim Coach Melissa Hubley.

In addition, the Team of Moore, Bradley, Chang and Escher broke the school record posting a time of 1:48.07 in the Free Relay and Caroline Maillho clocked 1:07.3 breaking the 100 Back school record.

Lady Hawks replacing voids with youth

BY JOSEPH W. GEX, II
STAFF WRITER

The Hancock Lady Hawks posted a 22-8 record a year ago on the hardwood. Thanks to graduation, they are now left to replace several voids on the roster with youth eager to impress.

Lady Hawks head coach Jamie Sisco commented, "We have one senior in Alexis Rawls and the rest is freshmen and sophomores. We are excited to get going this season and play a game. Our players have worked extremely hard to prepare themselves for the challenges they will face this year. With just two players returning with varsity experience, we will be talented by inexperienced. We are excited about the future of Lady Hawk basketball and what lies ahead of us."

Alexis Rawls and KK Randall are the sole returning players with varsity playing experience. Randall will be the point guard and Rawls will play forward. After that there is a slew of freshmen and sophomores that will step in and play roles and provide depth.

Sisco added, "Our first goal when we took over the program was to get Lady Hawk basketball going again. We feel like we did that by going 22-8 but we are not satisfied till we are updating banners hanging in our gym. I am thankful to the seniors from last year for stepping up and playing the ground work for the type of program we want. Now, it is us to these girls to keep it going. We talk to them daily about this. The challenge for our younger players is simple, "How will we react to adversity since we have had so much success? If the girls will allow us to coach them, the sky is the limit for our program."

This is a monumental task before the Hancock basketball program. Stay tuned to see what the Lady Hawks whip up! See you at the game!

Cooler weather, great fishing

This cooler weather has made for some awesome fishing. The winds have been making things a little tricky, but we are still able to get out almost every single day.

One of the best parts about this time of year, is the variety. On the calmer days, we are down south in the Louisiana Marsh. Down there, we are chasing speckled trout over oyster reefs in 3-5 feet of water or moving water near points and drains. The other fun thing to do, down south in the LA Marsh, is hunting redfish in the shallow ponds. When the conditions are right, the sight fishing opportunities are seemingly endless.

Since it is fall, the cold fronts will be coming, and the winds won't be far behind. On the windy days, we are hiding back in the bays, rivers, or around the near shore reefs. There we are having a ball, catching black drum, sheepshead, white trout, flounder and several other tasty critters.

SHORE THING FISHING REPORT

Lately, we have been seeing some good numbers of speckled trout and red fish on these near shore trips. There is almost no stability to the weather this time of year. One day will be light and variable winds, and the next day, it might blow 30 mph. One thing that has saved our rear ends, has been live wells full of live shrimp.

If the fish are finicky, they may turn their noses up at even the prettiest artificial bait. A frisky live shrimp however, seldom gets passed up. You just gotta hope for the best, and plan for the worst this time of year.

As always, have fun and be safe

New divisions leave area teams unaffected

BY JOSEPH W. GEX, II
STAFF WRITER

The Mississippi High School Activities Association (MHSAA) recently released the division alignments and classifications for the next two years based on enrollment figures turned in to the Mississippi Department of Education.

While the majority of local schools will not be affected in the reclassification year, some divisions will be changed.

Bay High School, Pass Christian High School and St. Stanislaus College will all remain in Class 4A while Hancock High School remains a Class 6A school. Our Lady Academy will move up to Class 3A in August.

Other schools throughout the state also moved up and down creating changes in the classification and North/South breakdowns.

East Central High School, a longtime member of a Class 4A, will move up to Class 5A and Vancleave High School is the largest 4A in the state.

In football, Bay High, Pass Christian, and St.

Stanislaus will remain in Division 8 along with Moss Point and Vancleave. The division will remain the same in basketball and soccer. In cross country, Pass Christian, SSC and Vancleave will make up their division.

In swimming, OLA, Pass Christian and SSC will all compete in Region 2 of Class I which is a 14-member region.

It is assumed that baseball and track and field will all follow the breakdown of football.

Hancock will remain a Class 6A school and their affiliations in all sport divisions will remain constant.

The new classification system will be in effect for the next two school calendar years.

Coach Casey Wittman steps down after a decade with Pass Pirates

BY JOSEPH W. GEX, II
STAFF WRITER

Casey Wittman, the head football coach at Pass Christian High School for a decade, submitted his resignation in that role on Monday.

Wittman, a native and lifelong resident of Pass Christian and 1984 St. Stanislaus College graduate, just completed his 10th season at the helm of the Pirate program. The Pirates were 1-9 overall and 0-5 in Division 8-4A in 2018.

In an interview with another local news outlet, Wittman commented, "I have been blessed to be able to work in the town I grew up in. Pass Christian is a wonderful school district with great kids. We felt like we were getting past the struggles the last three years. Over the history of the program, there hasn't been a lot of success. We qualified for the playoffs the last two years. We felt like we were headed in the right direction. We had a young team this year and things didn't go our way. It is time for the kids to get a new message."

Wittman's record at Pass Christian is 25-76 but the team had shown marked improvement over the last three years. He led the Pirates to the Class 4A state playoffs in 2016 and 2017 and hosted the school's first home playoff game since 2002 after a stunning upset of St. Stanislaus College that gave them the #2-seed.

Wittman had also served as the head coach at his alma mater, St. Stanislaus College, from 2002-07. He had a record of 33-23 at SSC and led the Rocks to the playoffs in five of his six seasons at the helm of the program.

He won the first division title in the history of SSC's football program in 2004 and also coached the Rocks to the program's first home playoff game in 2003 and the first playoff win in 2004.

As a player at SSC, he lettered in football three years and baseball two years. Wittman blocked a PAT against Pass Christian in 1983 to give SSC their first ever win over the Pirates 7-6.

After high school,

Wittman played football at Mississippi Gulf Coast Community College and was a member of the 1984 National Championship team.

Wittman added, "I have a Masters Degree in Education so I may move into administration. In my heart, I've still got a little left for coaching. With the right opportunity, I would still be interested in coaching."

Before taking over the SSC program, Wittman was the offensive coordinator at Pass Christian High School for two seasons helping the Pirates host a home playoff game in 2001. He spent a year teaching at Harrison Central between his stints at SSC and Pass Christian and earned his masters.

Bay-Waveland Yacht Club wins 69th MCYA Chapman Regatta

BY JAMES KEATING MD

Bay Waveland Yacht Club (BWYC) hosted and placed first in the 69th edition of the Mississippi Coast Yacht Club Association (MCYA) Chapman Regatta the weekend of October 20-21.

Four Gulf Yachting Association (GYA) yacht clubs participated in this exciting event: BWYC, Pass Christian Yacht Club (PCYC) Buccaneer Yacht Club (BYC), and Southern Yacht Club (SYC).

BWYC Vice Commodore Eugene Schmitt served as Regatta Chairman and Clinton Edwards was the Principal Race Officer. Zak Fanberg was the hosting BWYC Commodore.

The MCYC Chapman Regatta is a team racing event. The first set of Flying Scott sailboat races was a true 3 vs. 3 round robin format. That first set rolled into a semi-finals and then a finals round. Each of two yacht clubs enter three Flying Scott sailboats in a match. Teamwork strategy, rather than individual competition, is employed to achieve the best performance or lowest score of the three boats as a whole in each race. Maneuvers such as “blanketing” an opponent’s sails or using the right of way rules to retard an opponent’s forward progress are legitimate in team racing.

A seasoned Buccaneer team (BYC) was a welcome edition to the regatta. “Team Buc” consisted of seven Chapman Family descendants. Ann Chapman Steiffel presented the historic trophy to the winners. The Southern team members were fresh off of their win at the Hinman Masters and are the reigning US national racing team champions. The BWYC vs. SYC finals came right down to the wire. BWYC won the finals with results of 2 – 1 – 1 – 2 -1.

The BWYC finals team consisted of Boat 1 Skipper Zak Fanberg, Crew Rod Steiffel, Boat 2 Skipper Baker Potts, Crew Richard “Boo” Heausler, Crew Martha Heausler, Boat 3 Skipper Eugene Schmitt, Crew Kippy Chamberlain, Crew William Baxter.

The Chapman Regatta started in 1950 when the Chapman brothers donated the Chapman Trophy to the MCYA. The patriarch Harry Chapman notes that the first race in 1950 started this long family sailing tradition with four fish-boats.

Leadership Hancock Class launches fundraiser to support new Work Ready Mentor Program

SEA COAST ECHO

On Saturday, Nov. 10 from 8 a.m. to 1 p.m. at Prestige Fitness in the Diamondhead area, members of the 2017/2018 Leadership Hancock Class are challenging the community to participate in LIFTOFF, a strength and endurance challenge.

Proceeds from the event will help launch the new Work Ready Mentor Program initiated by Leadership Hancock, an annual program of the Hancock Chamber.

LIFT OFF participants can sign up for any number of challenges to include step-ups, pushups, kettlebell swings, lunges and sit-ups, overhead presses and more. There is also a competition for team rowing, cycling, weight lifting and the Murph Challenge. Registration starts at $60 and gift awards are valued at $500 for each of the five competitions. To register with the Hancock Chamber go to <http://tinyurl.com/2018-liftoff>

Companies and individuals are invited to also sponsor the event. Packages range from $500 to $200 and include registrations and company recognition. On-line sponsor registration is at: <https://tinyurl.com/2018-liftoff-sponsor>

For information, contact James Buras at jburas@comptonengineering.com or at 228-493-5200 or Tre Hamilton at Hamilton.tre@gmail.com or at 228-342-6401.

The workforce issue emerged when the Hancock

Chamber of Commerce partnered with the Hancock County Port & Harbor Commission in 2016 to launch a business retention and expansion program.

Through this program, surveys of small businesses were conducted by members of the Leadership Hancock Class.

Today 60 small business and 60 primary companies have been interviewed that represent 4,906 employees. In the last three years, these companies have added 518 jobs and 68 companies are planning to expand investing an estimated $400,565,000 that will add 2,599 new jobs to the economy.

"We saw first-hand that the number one issue facing business and industry today in Hancock County and really across the nation is finding reliable, skilled workforce," said Tre Hamilton, a member of the Class. "We want to fill the gap and help connect the workforce with employers by providing mentoring and apprenticeships."

Members of the Class know that in order to achieve the goals they have set-forth, significant funds need to be raised.

Through this new and innovative program, members of the Class will offer a positive influence to high school juniors in Hancock County selected to participate by providing support, guidance, encouragement and direction for students who are looking for a career path.

"Working one-on-one with a mentor from the Hancock Leadership Class, participants will receive guidance on resume writing, phone and email etiquette, and interview skills," said James Buras, another member of the Class.

After students graduate from high school, some will go on to participate in the apprenticeship component of the program. The Leadership Hancock Work Ready team will support apprentices through the job application process and will help open employment doors in Hancock County.

Another goal of the program is to lower barriers for local business owners by alleviating the initial expense of training a new employee. The goal of the program is to pay half of the apprentice's wages for three months to the business owner. After the three-month trial period is over, the employer can choose whether to fully employ the apprentice.

While members of Leadership Hancock are volunteering their time to help the youth of Hancock County lift off their careers, raising funds to support the apprenticeship program is critical to achieving success.

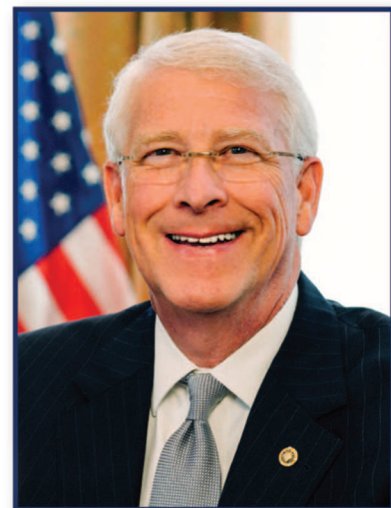

"We want to be ready to help these employers find the skilled workers they need to move our economy in the right direction," said Tish Williams, executive director of the Hancock Chamber.

"We applaud the efforts of the Leadership Class for embracing this issue and finding a solution to arm our workforce with the skills they need to land the jobs they want right here at home."

Meet the Sea Coast Echo's NEW food columnist

THE SEA COAST ECHO IS EXCITED TO INTRODUCE ITS NEWEST CONTRIBUTING FOOD COLUMNIST, LINDA BIGLER. EACH SATURDAY, LINDA WILL FEATURE A UNIQUE RECIPE IN ADDITION TO HER COLUMN. BELOW IS HER BIOGRAPHY AND HER FIRST RECIPES, CHILI CON QUESO Y ARROZ AND RED SNAPPER VERACRUZ STYLE.

BY LINDA BIGLER
CONTRIBUTING WRITER

I was born and raised in New Orleans. My love of cooking came from my Grandmother Malet; who was an excellent Creole home cook. During all the times I observed her preparing food, I had never seen her use a recipe or any sort of measuring devices. Most Sundays would find us at her home for dinner, which in those days was served around 1 p.m. She would begin preparing the meal before she went to church, and then finish it when she returned home. Shortly after I married Bill, he entered the Air Force. One of the advantages of moving frequently was the fact that I was able to attend cooking classes dedicated to each local cuisine. While living in Japan, I taught English at the Pan World Academy. I made the suggestion that perhaps the English language could be grasped more quickly by the adults I taught if we had a class that involved experiential learning. We decided on a Western style cooking class and my career in teaching food preparation began. Since that time, I have taught cooking from Tokyo to Tampa. I have taught students from six to eighty. During my 40 years of teaching, I have worked in gourmet food shops; on college and high school campuses; and in private homes. Over the years, I have written food columns and restaurant reviews. If and of my friends want a recipe, I usually can get it for them.

Mexican Food – Not All Tacos and Burritos

When one thinks of Mexican food, usually tacos and burritos immediately come to mind. Here are two recipes for some south of the border dishes with which you may not be familiar. Please for your sake and my sanity, do not use pre-shredded cheese.

Chili con Queso y Arroz

Preheat oven to 350 degrees
2 cups sour cream
1 four ounce can chopped green chilies
5 cups cooked long grain rice
1 teaspoon dried oregano, crushed
1/4 teaspoon ground black pepper

1/2 pound mild cheddar cheese, grated
2 green onions, thinly sliced; tops included

- In a medium bowl, fold chopped chilies into the sour cream
- Mix the rice with the oregano and black pepper
- Reserve 1 cup of the grated cheese
- Butter a 2 quart baking dish and layer rice, sour cream, and cheese at least twice ending with a layer of rice
- Cover and bake in a preheated 350 degree oven for 25 minutes.
- Uncover, sprinkle with the reserved cheese and bake uncovered for an additional 10 minute
- Remove from oven, garnish with green onions and serve, Serves 6 to 8

Red Snapper Veracruz Style

Preheat oven to 350 degrees
6 red snapper fillets about

8 ounces each (cod or halibut can be substituted)
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon black pepper
Juice of two limes

Sauce:

2 tablespoons olive oil
3 cups canned crushed tomatoes
1 medium onion, chopped
2 cloves garlic, minced
4 pickled jalapeño peppers, seeded and cut into strips
1/4 cup sliced pimiento stuffed green olives
1/2 teaspoon salt
1 pinch of cinnamon
1 pinch of ground cloves

- Place fillets in a casserole dish brushed with olive oil and sprinkle with salt and pepper, then brush with lime juice
- In a skillet over medium heat, heat the olive oil

- Add the remaining ingredients for the sauce, bring to a boil and immediately reduce to a simmer.
 - Simmer for about 10 (ten) minutes, stirring occasionally to avoid sticking
 - Pour the hot sauce over the fillets
 - Cover and bake for 25 minutes
- Serves 6

IF I WAS ON THE SIDE OF THE ROAD HURTING, WOULD YOU HELP ME?

BY GARY ANDREWS
GARY@GADEVOTIONALS.COM

Most of recognize the title from the parable of the good Samaritan in which Jesus told to a certain lawyer in Luke 10:25-37. The lawyer had asked Jesus, "Teacher, what shall I do to inherit eternal life?" Jesus asked him, "What is written in the law? What is your reading of it?" So he answered and said, "You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your strength, and with all of your mind, and your neighbor as yourself." And Jesus said to him, "You have answered rightly; do this and you will live." But he, wanting to justify himself, said to Jesus, "And who is my neighbor?" Aren't many of us in today's modern society continuing to ask the question, "Who is my neighbor?" Aren't we still testing Jesus just as this lawyer did? There was at a time when many people were stopping to the aid of people only to be held up and robbed by the so called people in need. These types of stories are getting more and more abundant today and it is hard for anyone to offer help, especially in an unknown situation. I know on many occasions I have stopped and offered help to many, especially a female who was changing a tire or looking under the hood of her car. One of my daughters was on her way to college when she was passing through a place that was commonly known as not a good place to stop. Her car experienced engine problems and she was stuck on the side of the road and it wasn't long a man stopped to help, or at least he said to help. Immediately an older couple also stopped and took control of the situation, assessing the damage, and taking my daughter to their home until someone could come get her car. These people were sent from God because when my daughter went back to get her car the first man had left a note on her car saying he took her tag number and would see her again. This was not a note she wanted to see. In my opinion the older couple that stopped and helped my daughter are good Samaritans. I don't know if there would have been any trouble from the first man or not, but I was so glad to hear that she was safe and sound at this couple's home. I know that most of us want to or will stop and help someone in trouble on the side of the road. Many of us will also analyze the situation before subjecting our family to possible problems. In today's society many do not want help from the outside because one never knows who will stop and help or maybe hurt you. Cell phones are a great tool and highway patrolmen are never far away should you ever be caught on the side of the road. Call them first just in case someone stops with other ideas instead of helping you. Jesus asked the lawyer who he thought the neighbor was to the victim of the thieves. The lawyer answered, "He who showed mercy on him." Then Jesus said to him, "Go and do likewise."

The Strange and Beautiful SEAHORSE

Find the two identical seahorses on this page.

Standards Link: Investigation: Find similarities and differences in common objects.

Whoa, Nellie!

The seahorse looks like it is made up of many different animals.

Unscramble each word to find out the odd parts of the tiny seahorse. Stuck on some? Keep reading this page and you will find the answers.

It has:

The head and neck of a Soreh.

The eyes of a Lacheonme.

The pouch of a noagrako.

The Tail of a yonkem.

The armor of an Liadamrol.

Wild Eyed

One seahorse eye can look up while the other looks down. One eye can look for food while the other is on the lookout for predators. Another kind of animal that has eyes that can move independently is the chameleon.

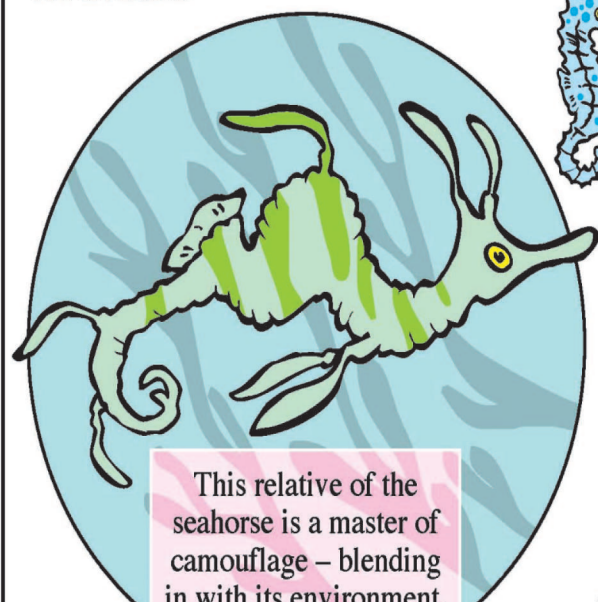

Tough on The Outside

Seahorses look like they are wearing armor. Actually they have a shiny external skeleton made up of interlocking bony plates – like an armadillo!

Standards Link: Life Science: Animals have structures that serve different functions in growth, survival and reproduction.

Seahorse Heads

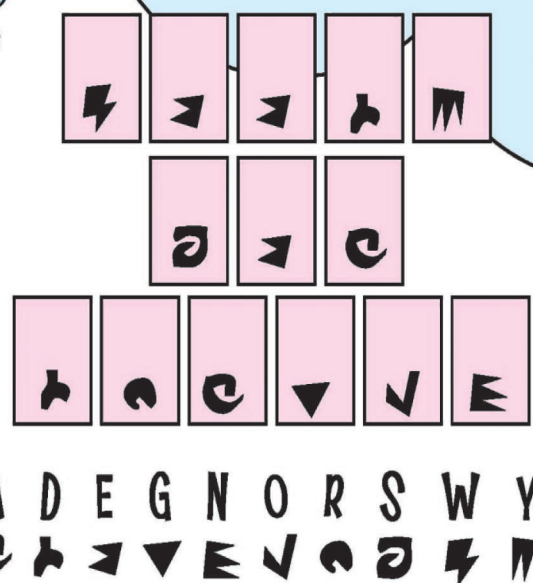

The long snout of a seahorse gives the animal its horsey appearance. Unlike a horse, the seahorse mouth does not open and close or have any teeth. The seahorse uses its snout like a little vacuum cleaner, sucking up its favorite foods of brine shrimp, baby eels and other tiny sea creatures.

This relative of the seahorse is a master of camouflage – blending in with its environment. Use the code to discover its name.

Tail Tale

A seahorse's tail is like a monkey tail. Scientists call these prehensile tails because they can grasp like a hand. The seahorse's tail helps it to hang onto sea plants while it waits for food to swim by. Seahorses also hang onto each other with their tails.

Picture This

Number the pictures in order to show how baby seahorses are born.

Standards Link: Reading Comprehension: Sequence information found in text.

Extra! Extra! Creature Cut-Ups

You can create a new creature from parts of creatures pictured in today's newspaper. Cut out different parts of different people and animals. Use these to create a new creature. Give your creature a name. Invent stories about your creature.

Standards Link: Reading Comprehension: Follow simple written directions.
